THE PRESIDENT A PARTICIPANT.

THE "UNKNOWN" CHECKMATED.

The Crowd to Hear Coxey Deprived Him of an Audience.

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 17.—Coxey has not backed out of his enterprise, but today he will take water. The road over the mountains between this point and Williamsport was too rough and steep to tempt the travelers, and taking advantage of the inflow of large cash contributions that have been received during the stay in Cumberland, Coxey hired canal boats to take the party eighty-five miles down the canal to Williamsport. Coxey will work his floaters in blocks of two, one barge for the men and the other for the horses and camp paraphernalia. The canal company was not anxious to transport the party, but Coxey showed his abilities as a manager, telegraphing to Washington for the permission of General Manager Nicholson to pass the boats through the locks and securing job lot freight rates at fifty-two cents a ton on all of his company, men horses and lumber. This was twelve cents higher than the rate on coal but will make three days of pleasant travel.

The company has been docility itself since the reappearance of Coxey in camp. Pizzaro, formerly known as the "Great Unknown," sunk out of sight and was forgotten in twelve hours after his expulsion from "Camp Victoria," which was the title bestowed on the Cumberland ball park by Browne in commemoration of his restoration to command. Smith Pizzaro's last play for notoriety and favor was made last night and was neatly checkmated by Coxey. Smith advertised the appearance of himself, Jesse Coxey and the veiled lady at a twenty-five cent lecture in Cumberland. Coxey then sowed broadcast a flaming hand bill announcing a free lecture by himself and Browne just across the street from Pizzaro's, adding to the announcement that Jesse Coxey would not appear at any meeting, contrary reports notwithstanding.

Smith was out pointed. Coxey's hall was crowded to the doors, and the audience applauded vigorously the old stories and similes of Browne, who, in spite of his uncouth appearance and rough speech, ALTOONA, Pa., April 17.—Isaac Sparr, the Blair county farmer who attempted suicide on Saturday by firing two bullets from a revolver into his brain, is still living. He is perfectly rational and apparently vigorous. The hole through his forehead has been probed until the instrument touched the back part of the skull and brains ooze through the wound. The other ball entered the brain from the side of the head. Sparr walked home after the shooting, and has never been unconscious from the effect of the wounds. He says he only feels a little numbness.

Breckinridge's Friends Still Loyal.

OWENTON, Ky., April 17.—The news of the verdict in the Pollard-Breckinridge case created no particular surprise here especially among the voters. The feeling regarding Breckinridge is about the same as before the verdict. If anything his friends appear more active, as they assert that the result of the trial will cut no figure in this end of the district. Breckinridge telegraphed to some of his friends that he was in the race to win and to communicate the same to his friends in this county. Lively times are expected in the near future.

Amnesty for Brazilian Revolutionists.

BUENOS AYRES, April 17.—Advices have reached here from Montevideo to the effect that President Peixoto, of Brazil, has informed the Uruguayan government that his government is prepared to pay the quarantine expenses and the passage money of all Brazilians who quitted their country on account of the insurrection and who are now desirous of returning to their homes. It is added that a general amnesty will be granted to all insurgents with the exception of the leaders of the rebellion.

The President's Prerogative.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—A constitutional opinion of great importance was rendered by Judge Nott, of the court of claims, in passing upon one of two cases arising out of the Weil and La Abra Mexican awards. The question presented was as to whether or not the president can lawfully approve a bill after the adjournment of congress.

Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British [illegible] bassador was escorted to a seat next [illegible] the cabinet officers.

At 4 o'clock the invited guests [illegible] all present, Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge, Richmond, offered prayer. He also delivered the sermon, in which he paid eloquent tribute to the dead statesman.

After the sermon the hymn "Thy Will be Done" was repeated, and a [illegible] prayer was offered by Chaplain Milburn.

The funeral escort left the Capitol [illegible] the eastern door from the senate chamber. The casket was carried down the [illegible] flight of stone steps between the lines [illegible] senators and representatives who acted [illegible] honorary pall bearers. The funeral party were driven to the Pennsylvania depot, accompanied by a delegation of North Carolinians on foot. The remains were taken to Asheville, N. The WREN in Business

It is characteristic of the Wren that it will sneak in and occupy the nest made by another bird, in preference to building one of its own. This same trait is often seen in business. It is shown by the imitators of

COTTOLENE

No sooner has the wonderful merit of this new vegetable shortening, so much better than lard, created for it a remarkable sale and popularity, than the business wrens are ready to move upon the market with many worthless counterfeits. Any housekeeper can be easily and cheaply convinced of the value of COTTOLENE by simply giving it a trial. They will then be unwilling to go back to lard, or go down to fraudulent imitations.

GOVERNOR WAITE'S VICTORY

Old Fire and Police Officers Step Down and Out

DENVER, April 17.—The supreme court granted a writ of quo warranto in the fire and police board controversy, and ordered the old board to turn over the office at noon today. The order was obeyed, and is a complete victory for Governor Waite.

There will be no further contention in the courts in this and the question is absolutely and legally settled. As the present police force has been active in its support of the old board no doubt exists that it will be entirely reorganized and the police officers appointed by Republicans. It is the strict opinion that Governor Waite acted within the provisions of the law, and that the opposition on the part of the old board in complying with his demand for its resignation existed purely because of the personal and political advantages the positions offered. There have been no demonstrations of any nature, and the city is absolutely peaceful.

Alleged Forged Bondsmen Arrested.

NEWARK, N. J., April 17.—A band of deputy sheriffs and constables, all Italian agents, left here on a Philadelphia express bound for the upper ends of Pennsylvania. They took with them warrants for the arrest of a large number of the Italians who are accused by the officers of spurious names on their bonds. Information from the seat of trouble is very meagre, but it is understood that no less than twenty-five arrests were made. The officers claim that the arrests are illegal and threaten to bring counter suits for damages. Everybody connected in the affair is of high reputa, and trouble is feared.

Escaped Out to the Free Gates.

BERNARDY, April 17.—In the office of Bergen park yesterday between the Hackensack and Spuyten Duyvil, of the Eastern Railroad, Caroline Daniel Banks, of the latter town, was shot by an assailant which will end her playing for this season of love. In the duel waging he stepped to the third base side of the home plate to clinch a ball that had been thrown from the field when he received one by Davis, of the Brooklyn, and knocked down. His leg was broken at the eighteen-hundred pound mark through the flesh. It was Banks' first game with the aforesaid clubs.

Two Cents Every Scarecrow.

BERGEN, April 17.—The Hackensack society is made an effort to remove the Italian of the workers who have their farm in the gloomy north, who has been taken up by Acting District Attorney Kimball. At a recent Health Commissioner Wood and Coroner Tucker held a consultation with Mr. Kimball, who informed them that complaints had already been made to prosecute the Italians. The names of certain ones were found at the various water yesterday. One of the wells body that has been suspected

Laundry Looted by Whitecaps.

BRUNSWICK, N. J., April 17.—A band of whitecaps went to the home of Abel Johnson a negro, and called him out. They seized him, took him to a pump near the fair grounds and tied him to a tree. His clothes were removed and he was whipped with blacksnake whips until he was raw and almost burned alive. He grossly insulted a lady last Saturday night. There is great excitement among the negroes over the affair.

Charges Against Ex-Officials.

LANCASTER, Pa., April 17.—The excitement in police circles incident to the canvassing of the vote of the Republican primary election is to-night well started by the decision of Judge Hendrick, who directed the district attorney to prepare indictments against President Clerk Stauffer and Inspector Burkholder, of the election board, and his deputy, John H. Miller, and empowering to direct the arrests of the same. The other three men of the board, Judge Hendrick was obliged for a hearing, and the subpoenas for the arrest of all the members of the precinct board.

—For once the calendars were wrong. They should have read this year January, February, April, March May, etc.

—The Rev. J. H. Hawxhurst, who was attending conference in New York city, returned last week. We are glad he is to be with us for another year.

—Mrs. C. Gillespie has been very sick at her home on Union street.

—Dr. R. Kearns has had one of his toes amputated and is compelled to walk around on crutches. He broke the toe twelve years ago playing ball and it has troubled him more or less since.

—Many people have their gardens, grass, etc., before the snow storm came.

—Mr. Leander P. Gale, foreman of the paper mill, has received from the Provident Accident Society, through his agent, Geo. F. Genung, of this place, $500, the full amount of his claim for benefits for the frightful injuries which he sustained in the mill, a few months ago.

—Miss Catherine McLaughlin, sister of David McLaughlin, of Fish-kill, was a visitor here on Saturday. It is her first visit here in forty years.

—Mr. William Long, who has been superintending the erection of a paper mill in Bristol, has returned here.

—We are glad to say that the times are brightening up here and the prospects are good for a continuation of good times. Montgomery has not felt much depression, but if you listen to a few old croakers whom nothing suits, you are made to think that business and trade have been dead, but as a whole, for this season of the year, the town is very much in the procession.

—Miss Ella Hulse, formerly of this place, but who has resided in New York city, for the past four years, died at her home there, Tuesday, of pneumonia. The remains were brought to the home of her mother, here, and the funeral was held there, Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Interment in Brier Church Cemetery.

The Most Beautiful Work Given to the Public and that of the Greatest Value.

It is something that those who would live and know the life of to-day must have

Our Greatest Men and Women

Who are still alive and with us.

HOW THEY LOOK

AND WHAT THEY HAVE ACCOMPLISHED. THE FACES AND THE STORIES OF THOSE WHO ARE NOW AFFECTING THE HISTORY OF THE COUNTRY.

THE struggle is to give something new for the public which will be most interesting and attractive, and yet will be recognized as having a great and prominent value. It is believed that this has again been accomplished. It is done in what is entitled:

"America's Greatest Men and Women."

The story of the world, as has been presented in many forms of years past, at the Centennial or the World's Fair of 1893 have been most familiar: we know much of the people of the past, but what we want to become acquainted with those most prominent at the present time, the men who are WILL BE, and whose daily acts are the things that make world-progress.

THE THING HAS BEEN DONE!

What was impossible in the past is possible now. The enormous improvements made in photography and in all the delicate arts of preparation, the closer relations between the lives of all public characters and the public, and, above all the incentive afforded by recent earnest competition between the newspapers of the country to supply their readers with the most valuable productions of art and literature, have resulted in what is offered to the readers of THE ARGUS.

It is possible to-day to tell the story of a noted person and at the same time to give that person's very features. It is as if the reader were looking into the face of the one described as he learns what that person has accomplished. In this work, "AMERICA'S GREATEST MEN AND WOMEN," there is told the story of those living to-day, who have become prominent, and it is told what they have attained and how it was done, while the perfect recent photograph tells how each person looks. All prominent facts in each history are given, and there is a study of character, straightforward, simple and without bias of any kind.

The work is the story of the very life, the way and the appearance of the men and women who are about us and with us, and who by their leading qualities are directing the course of the continent's life to-day.

It is believed that nothing could be more interesting to read, nothing more fascinating and valuable. The struggle between the publishers, as between the newspapers, is constantly becoming more earnest and energetic. The result is, that great things have been accomplished, and it is almost a certainty that the greatest thing accomplished up to the present time is the production,

"America's Greatest Men and Women."

THE ARGUS has secured this great work with a monopoly for the territory in which it circulates.

ITS FORM.

Each week's issue is a large work of 16 pages, size 11x13 inches, bound in book shape and containing upon each page a magnificent portrait from a recent photograph. Below each portrait appears a graphic description telling what the person above has done and how he or she has attained prominence in life and has become one of the great persons among us now affecting the destiny of the country. The descriptions given in the history are not merely commonplace and mechanical. They give a study of the work and character of the person. They are as fascinating as they are valuable as data.

WHO CAN SPARE IT?

Think of such a work as this! Will it not be invaluable to any public man? Will it not be invaluable to any one interested in the every-day affairs of the country? Will it not be invaluable in the household, where the children may become familiar with the faces and the stories of those who are making history in their own time? Is there any work more beneficial to man, woman or child, in any class or society—or anywhere within the limits of the American continent?

The Complete Work will Consist of Sixteen Parts,

Each Containing Sixteen Full-Page Portraits,

With Concise but Comprehensive Biographies.

Size 11x13 inches, printed in photo-brown, with beautiful tinted border, upon finest heavy enameled paper, and each part enclosed in a handsome cover.

YOU CAN GET THIS WORK ONLY THROUGH THE DAILY ARGUS.

HERE ARE THE TERMS:

In Every Issue of The Argus will appear a numbered coupon. Cut this coupon out and bring or forward it, together with Ten Cents, to the Coupon Department of THE ARGUS and there will be delivered or mailed to you one number of the series as above. The remaining parts can be obtained as issued, one each week, by the readers of THE ARGUS under the same conditions.

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1894.

Tillman, Hill and Morgan vie with each other and with Bill Chandler, ex-Czar Reed and Granny Hoar in their hatred and abuse of Cleveland and the people "love him for the enemies he has made."

A Brooklyn woman wants a divorce because on one occasion her husband held her and thrust red peppers in her mouth. That husband is undoubtedly a firm believer in the doctrine of similia similibus and made use of peppers as a natural cure for his wife's peppery tongue.

Gov. Tillman announces that during the first three months that the dispensary law was in operation in in South Carolina the sales were $248,180.76, on which the net profit was $41,163 49. For a big State like South Carolina $249,000 worth of whiskey isn't a very big allowance. The people there must be a great deal more temperate than they are generally supposed to be, or else they prefer "blind tiger" whiskey to that of the Palmetto brand.

What the Pollard trial left of Col. Breckinridge showed up in the House of Representatives, yesterday. He affected an air of jaunty unconcern as he greeted his acquaintances and while the Chaplain was making the opening prayer, stood with his hands crossed and a very sanctimonious look on his face. At the conclusion of the prayer he loudly ejaculated "Amen." His appearance of devoutness was the occasion of sneers by some of the members of the House, who seem to have forgotten that if any man stands in need of prayer it is Breckinridge.

Postmaster General Bissell has issued an order that new names for post offices must hereafter be confined to words of one syllable. There may be sound sense in this, and good reason for it, but the order seems ridiculous and uncalled for. It ought to be the right of the people of any community to select for that community any name that seems appropriate or that commends itself for local or other reasons. The Post Office Department is exceeding its powers when it decrees that there shall be no new post offices unless the names conform to its one syllable rule.

The Republican majority in the Legislature, anxious to make places for Republican lawyers, added a "rider" to the appropriation bill, which provided that the Attorney General might assign counsel to the State Commissions. These commissions are all Democratic, and the Governor does not think it wise policy nor one that will be conducive to good government to have the division of responsibility that will result if Democratic officials are steered by Republican lawyers. He has notified the Legislature that if the objectionable "rider" is not removed from the appropriation bill he will veto the whole measure, and has suggested that time will be saved by recalling the bill and cutting out the objectionable section.

Frank H. Mason, Consul General of the United States at Frankfurt, contributes to the Government Consular Reports for April a very interesting article on the use of gas motors for street railways in Germany. During the past year, Mr. Mason says, the use of gas motive power has been extended to many street and suburban railways in Germany, and that the latest expert opinion is unquestionably in favor of gas engines as cheaper and safer than horses or electricity, and as free from all the evident objections that prevent the use of steam motors on city and suburban streets. On several lines where gas motor cars are run careful comparisons of the cost of running them have been made with the cost of running cars with electricity and horse power, and the figures show an economy of twenty-five per cent. in favor of gas over electricity, and of between sixty and seventy-five per cent. over horse power. In these calculations the average cost of gas is placed at $1 05 per thousand feet. The cost of equipment with gas motors is slightly greater than with horse power, and very much less than when electricity is the motive power, the cost of building and equipping a road five miles in length, with twenty cars, being for the three systems: electricity, $180,880; gas motors, $112,800; horse cars, $133,250.

They did not, however, attack the works. The Cambria Company has secured warrants for the arrest of some strikers and trouble is expected at the Wheeler & Morell works, when the rioters are arrested.

THE SEWING SCHOOL.

The Record of the Winter's Work—Acknowledgements.

The sewing school, which has been carried on by the City Missionary Union, during the winter, closed Saturday. There has been an average attendance of about eighty. Two hundred garments have been cut out and given to the children, who were taught to make them and when finished they were allowed to take them home.

Thanks are due to the kind Christain ladies who have come with us and given their services as teachers. Thanks are also due the merchants who contributed largely of the material used. Besides teaching the children to sew there has been an endeavor to gain an elevating influence, also to instill some Christian truth.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Harriet Miller.

Mrs. Harriet Miller, widow of the late Lyman B. Miller, died, at 1 o'clock, this morning, at her home, 119 East Main street, of neuralgia of the heart. Her death was very sudden and unexpected as she lived only an hour or two after the attack came on.

Mason, at Pond Eddy, until about three years ago, when she removed to this village, taking up her residence with her daughter, Mrs. Diantha Service, at whose residence she died.

Mrs. Everett is survived by the following children: Mrs. Diantha Service, as above; Mrs. Samuel S. Mason, of Pond Eddy; Mrs. David Lee, of Centre Co., Ill., formerly of this village; Mrs. Evander Smith, of Hancock; Mrs. Alfred Swartwood, of Cochecton, and Everett Everett, of Otisville.

The funeral will be held from her late home, 7 Crawford street, on Thursday morning, and will be conducted by Rev. S. Washington of the Baptist Church.

Kenneth Tobias.

The body of Kenneth Tobias arrived in this city from Denver, Col., on Erie train 3, last evening, and was removed to Rockefellow's undertaking rooms for the night and this morning was taken to Salisbury Mills on the Orange County Express.

The young man, who was a nephew of Mrs. Charles Beattie, of this city, resided at Salisbury Mills. He was suffering from consumption, and about ten days ago went to Denver in the hope that the change would be beneficial, but it was too late. He died a few days after his arrival.

Rev. Dr. Beattie and family accompanied the remains to Salisbury Mills, where the funeral will take place, to-day.

Board of Trade Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Trustees of the Middletown Board of Trade will be held at their room in the Masonic Building, this evening, at 8 o'clock.

THE NORTH STREET PAVING.

The Work Ordered Five Months Ago and Nothing Done Yet.

Inquiry at the City Clerk's office reveals the fact that a formal petition of property owners on North street between Franklin Square and the Erie road, signed Nov. 9th, 1893, was presented to the Common Council, asking that the street be paved with asphalt blocks, provided satisfactory terms and prices could be obtained. The Council on Nov. 17th voted to grant the petition, yet nothing whatever has been done towards commencing the work and North street is in a condition that is likely to drive trade away from that thoroughfare, and if the electric road is in operation before the paving is done the street will be in even a worse condition than it is to-day.

Two months ago urged the Council to make all necessary preparations to begin work as soon as the frost was out of the ground so that the paving might be finished before the railroad company began operations, but nothing whatever was done.

The time spent in attempting to build a boulevard before the conditions were ripe for such work and in undoing that hasty action, might better have been devoted to preparations for the work ordered five months ago.

SAMPLE BRICK PAVING.

To Be Laid on East Main Street.

At the meeting of the Common Council, last evening, a representation of the John Porter Co., of New Cumberland, W. Va., manufacturers of the Mack block, one of the best of the many virtrified brick blocks for paving, offered to lay a sample of the brick paving, the city to pay for the work and material, but no charge to be made for superintendence.

The Council passed a resolution authorizing the mayor to have that portion of East Main street between the first two crossing above Franklin Square, paved by the Porter Co. The space designated contains about 150 square yards.

The mack block is nine and one half inches long, three inches wide and four inches thick, and is as hard as an asphalt block. The sample pavement will be laid on a concrete base.

FARMERS' PAY DAY AT THE CONDENSERY.

Over $20,000 of the Checks Cashed at the First National Bank.

Yesterday, was the farmers' pay day at the Anglo-Swiss Condensery. The fine weather and the anxiety of the farmers to get at their plowing and other spring work made them in a hurry to get the money on their checks and get home and the result was that in a few hours over $20,000 was paid to them over the counter of the First National Bank, on which the checks were drawn. This is the largest single day's payment ever made by the bank on account of the condensery, for usually several days elapse before checks for anything like this amount reach the bank.

The figures above given are of more than passing interest for they serve to show how great a factor to the prosperity of the region round about this city, and to the city itself the big factory of the Anglo-Swiss Company is.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Redner Loses His Suit against the Lehigh and Hudson.

The suit of James H. Redner against the Lehigh and Hudson Railroad Co. for damages for the loss of his wife's services was concluded at Circuit Court, Monday noon. INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Action on the Trolley Franchise Again Delayed—With the Wilkesbarre Club—Ivy Club's Dance—Minor Notes.

From our regular correspondent.

—The Board of Trustees took no action, last night, on the application of the Middletown-Goshen Traction Company for a franchise. There was considerable talk about the matter, however, and the position of the trustees, as nearly as it can be understood, is that they will not consider the application until the railroad people have secured consents of a majority of the property owners on the proposed route. When the consents are obtained there are many who predict that something else will be found to quibble about, for the impression is gaining strength that the trustees, despite their promise to respect the wishes of the majority of the people of Goshen, do not feel friendly toward the road.

—Chas. Tierney is now playing with the Wilkesbarre B. B. Club, of the Eastern League.

—The Ivy Democratic Club will hold one of its pleasant hops at its ball rooms in the Sayer block, Wednesday evening, April 18.

—A veritable Blue Beard has arrived at the clothing establishment of M. Jonas & Son and is holding high carnival in one of their windows. He is known as the "Clown Violin Player."

—Mr. H. C. Horton, son of Mr. J. M. Horton, the ice cream manufacturer of New York, spent Sunday in town.

—Mr. E. H. Harriman, of Arden, and his manager, G. H. Roberts, came to town, last night, on No. 5 and returned on No. 8 both trains having orders to stop here for them.

—John Minchin, V. S., is very busy now. He was called to Chester, yesterday, and spent the day there, having three cases to attend to.

A Chinaman Knocked Down and Robbed in Newburgh.

Louis Que, a Chinaman who runs a laundry at 102 Broadway, Newburgh, was knocked down on that street at the corner of High street, Sunday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, and robbed of $41. Que cannot speak English, and before he could give an alarm the robbers, two in number, got away. The robbery was seen by several persons for the street was crowded with pedestrians at the time. No arrests have been made.

A Good Company Plays to a Small Audience.

A very small audience was present at the Casino, last night, as is usually the case when a really first class attraction. The acting of all the members of Miss Lingay's company was most excellent, while that lady gives one of the best exhibitions of character in the role of Lady Blarney, that has ever been seen in this city.

Ward T. L. Notes.

Port Jervis's New Police Justice.

Hon. W. E. McCormick, Port Jervis's new Police Justice entered upon his duties, yesterday morning, and within his first hour of service, sentenced James Gilmartin to ninety days in jail for being drunk and disorderly on the streets on Sunday, and Con. Mannion, of New York, to thirty days for vagrancy.

A Curious Looking Passenger.

From the Port Jervis Union.

A curious looking personage alighted from Erie train 1 at this station, yesterday noon. His face had the peculiar steel blue color that comes from taking nitrate of silver to cure epilepsy. He was at first mistaken for a negro. But closer inspection revealed the error of that supposition. The man attracted a good deal of attention.

We find that as a family remedy for general use Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal. Mrs. A. J. Phillips, Milford, N. Y.

Base Ball Notes.

"Our own" John Lawler played with Springfield against the Brooklyn Leaguers, at Eastern Park, yesterday. He made two hits, a sacrifice hit, and two errors of his only fielding chances. A number of Middletowners went to New York, today, to see the game between the New Yorks and Springfields, in which Jack will play right field.
